

SARIBUNG PEAK CLIMBING

Saribung peak climbing requires a basic knowledge of mountain techniques. As well as Excellent physical condition and experience of trekking involved is required. You have to walk average 6 to 7 hours per day off-trail or on rough terrain and / or more than 1 000 meters of elevation gain or 20 kilometers. Exceptional ice crossing and few traveled to the heart of the Nepalese Himalayas which can reach from the ancient kingdom of Mustang, the mysterious valley and Naar Phu. This long banned crossing runs through the wild landscapes of the mountains of the Damodar. Glacial cervical Saribung to over 6000 meters of climbing permits the passage Saribung Peak, a little technical snow-capped peak of 6328 meters. The wide variety of landscapes encountered - colorful cliffs, cave cities, traditional villages, monasteries, sacred lakes, glaciers and high Himalayan Mountains - made this trip one of the most beautiful treks in Nepal. Saribung Peak climbing with Naar Phu valley trek is an exceptional trip that involved mythical site, wild and remote areas, great crossings, special treks around the world, unique trips where the adventure is intense.

 Challenging

Activity Levels:

For any trek at this level, fitness is most important and you may have to improve yours before departure. Most "C" grade treks are equivalent to extended walking in mountainous terrain at home, but usually at significantly higher altitudes; climate and remoteness can also play a part. Walking days are usually between 6 to 8 hours although there may be some longer days for pass-crossing or similar. Previous trekking experience is desirable but not essential if you are confident of your physical condition.

According to Michel Peissel, Geling is the gate of the kingdom of Lo. The beautiful chorten at the heart of the village is worth a visit, as well as the monastery of the fifteenth century that dominates it. We go up the valley to the Nyi La (4010 m) and then join the second pass, the Ghemi La (3770 m). Breathtaking scenery, colorful cliffs ranging from gray-blue to red ocher. Descent on Ghemi (3510 m), beautiful village with white houses breakthroughs brightly painted windows, all in the middle of a green oasis. Stop for lunch in a village house. Even a "small" Pass before descending gently until Dhakmar. Beautiful red rock hollowed organs of cave dwellings close the horizon. Camp. 6 hours of walking. M: 750 m. D: 550 m.

Day 08:: Dhakmar-Mui La [4170 m]-Ghar Gompa [3665 m]Ghar La [4200 m]-Lo Manthang [3810 m]

Our winding path zigzags through land penitents to the first pass of the Mui, then crosses a nice plateau to true col Mui La. The trail now balcony, winds through the pastures with grazing goats and yaks until very lively Ghar Gompa monastery (eighth century) decorated with beautiful frescoes. Visit the monastery. Small descent into the trough and we gradually climb to the Ghar, accompanied by the murmur of the stream.

A first pass before a flank crossing that bypasses the valley takes us to the second pass of the Ghar 4 280 meters. In a landscape of beautiful colorful hills from white to red ocher with all shades of yellow, all crowned by snowy peaks, we reach Lo. Lo Manthang is the fortified capital of the ancient and mythical kingdom of Lo. It has two doors: one north side entrance passing under a large porch and south side, backdoor, deleted and unobtrusive. Traditionally, only the north door was open during the day and closed every night ... Overnight in lodge.

VITAL INFORMATION

Visa:

The most convenient (and less expensive) is to have a visa on arrival at Kathmandu airport. To do this, please bring a photo Passport size and Cash small bills.

- 25 US dollars (or euro equivalent) for a 15-day visa (multiple entries)

- 40 US dollars (or euro equivalent) for a 30-day visa (multiple entries)
- 100 US dollars (or euro equivalent) for a visa from 31 to 90 days (multiple entries).

The visa is free for children under 10 years. For stays of less than 3 days, free visas no longer exist (take a visa "15 days"). When you take your visa on arrival, check that the "sticker" is properly affixed: without it, your visa is not valid

Travel Insurance:

It is a condition of joining any of our holidays that you are insured against medical and personal accident risks (to include repatriation costs, air ambulance and helicopter rescue services). We also strongly recommend that you take out delayed departure and cancellation insurance, as all deposits paid are non-refundable.

A relaxed trip is not possible without good travel insurance. In the event of any sickness or injury, the cost of emergency treatment and evacuation is shocking. Therefore, travel insurance is strongly recommended for everyone who signs up with Mountain Sherpa Trekking & Expeditions.

We strongly recommend that you be careful while choosing a policy as some makes special exceptions for adventure travel. Before buying your insurance, please ensure that your insurer is aware of your MSTE itinerary and can agree to cover the activities being undertaken in the trip to Nepal, Tibet, Bhutan & India. Such as if you are planning trekking or climbing/expedition in Himalayas your insurance must cover emergency air ambulance/helicopter rescue including medical expenses. For a group tours in urban areas, your insurance coverage of ambulance or helicopter rescue is not mandatory, however better to have with them too. Again, in Tibet, Bhutan & India trips there is no possibility of helicopter rescue, so no need to buy the air ambulance coverage. You need send us your copy of your insurance policy (e.g. your insurance certificate) or carry it with you while you come on the trip.

FAQS

What type of shape do I need to be in, is this trip for me?

You have to be physically excellent condition. You also need previous climbing experience and skills of using climbing equipment such as ropes, ice pick, harness, crampons. Our Climbing Sherpa guide will train you before start to ascent the Saribung Peak

What sort of accommodation can I expect in Kathmandu and Mountain?

We use standard rooms at quality hotels in Kathmandu with breakfast included. Along the trekking routes we provide combination of teahouses/lodges and tented camp accommodation.

We can also offer you sleeping bags if needed (to be returned after the trip) but it is a good idea to always have your own sleeping gear. The lodges generally provide single and double rooms, or seldom a dormitory. The toilet in tea houses provides essential and basic facilities and will be always outside the room. We provide quality Tent with Matters.

What sort of food can I expect on trail?

Our cook prepares delicious range of mostly vegetarian fare. Pasta, tuna bakes, noodles, potatoes, eggs, daal bhat (rice and lentils), bread, soup, fresh vegetables (variety depends on the season) and even some desserts like apple pies, pancakes, and some interesting attempts at custard. In many larger villages some meat items will be provided. You can always get hot chocolate, tea, and hot lemon drinks. Each day dinner and breakfast will be at a same camp you'll stay at while lunch will be taken on the way to destination.

Do your guides have Mountain guide license and first aid training for high altitude?

Yes, our entire climbing Sherpa guides have all received 45-day training from the Nepal Mountaineering Association. The guides have also received high altitude first aid training from KEEP (Kathmandu Environmental Education Project). Please check our Trekking Guides Profiles and Training Certificates.

What opportunities will I have for shower along the trek?

In major places, we arrange guesthouse with hot shower. And in rest of the places, water in bucket will be provided for shower.

Is Mountain Sherpa trekking staff insured?

Our company insures all our staff members, including guides, cooks, Sherpas and porters. Please browse through Company Information pages to view insurance details.
